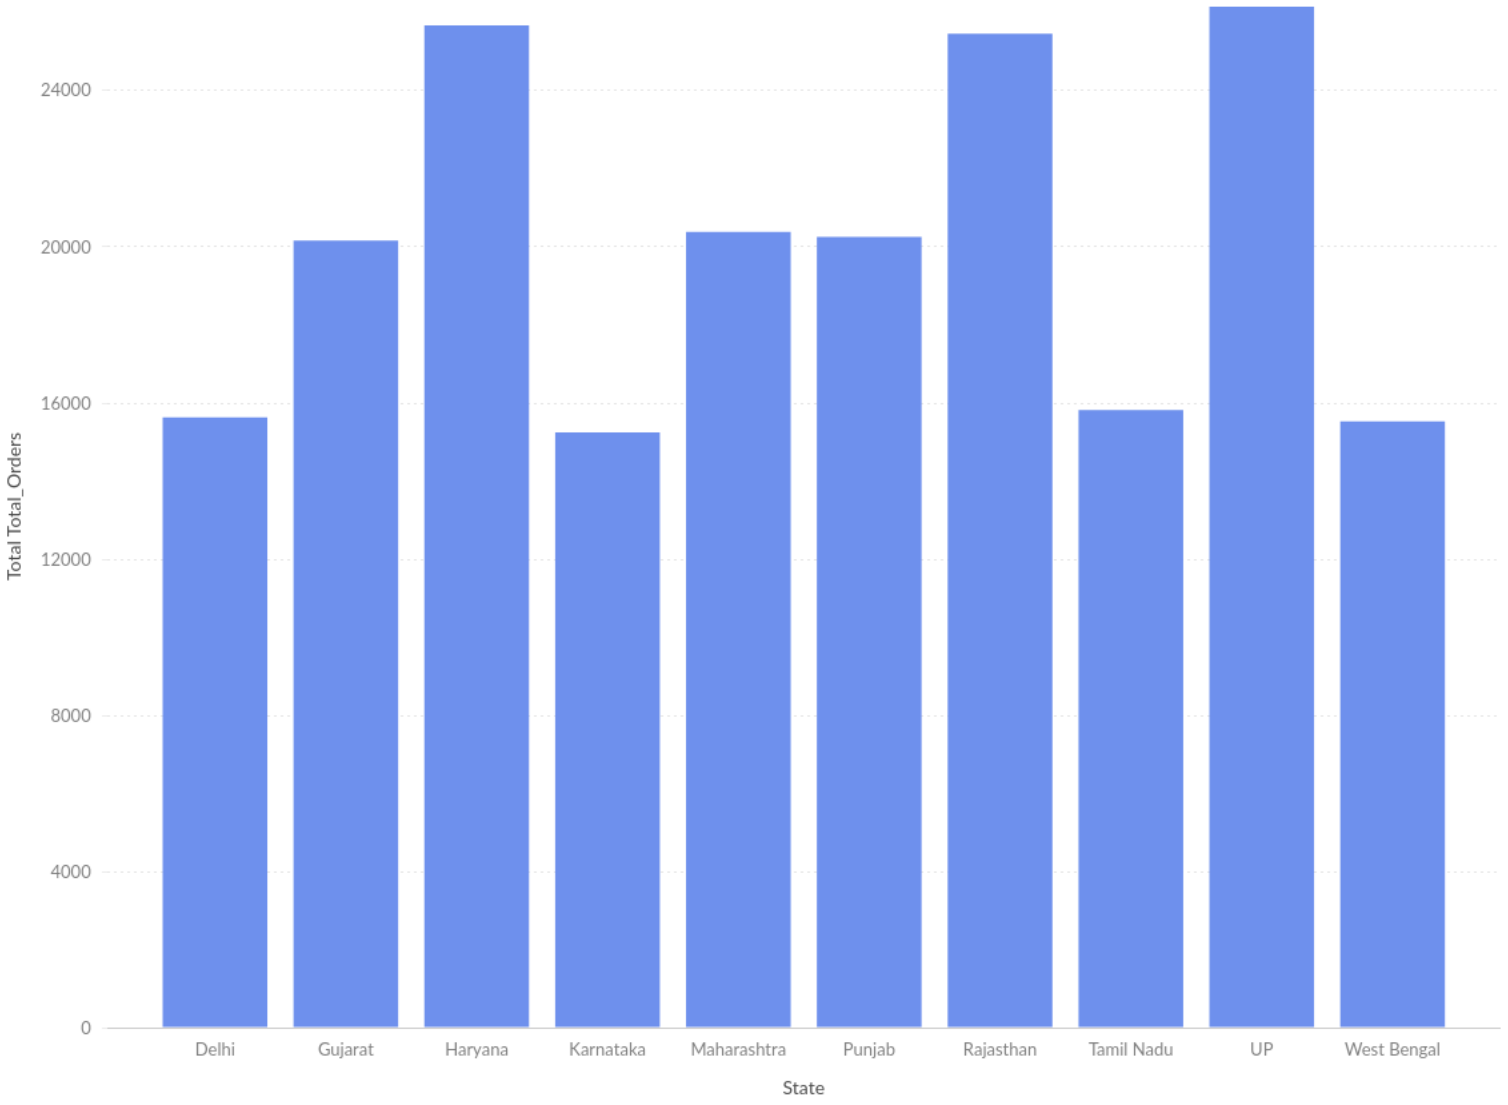
Orders by State.


Compares the total number of orders placed by customers across states to identify locations contributing the highest purchase volume.